BOOK SIX of the CODE OF THE WEST series. Now that Tap Andrews is a husband and father-to-be, he hankers for a quieter routine. Instead, his life resembles a ride down a sheer cliff on a bucking bronco - without a saddle. He's no longer an escaped fugitive. Or a Wyoming lawman backing down a riotous mob. Or a brand inspector dodging rustler ambushes. But he is a rancher and family man. Cattle graze in their living room. Indians camp in their yard. A notorious pack of outlaws plague them. A pair of inept bank robbers bumble around. And a pacifist family are violently forced off their homestead. Courage, faith and gun skills still needed.
