El mal del olvido (Spanish Edition) Marcela Escobar

El mal de Alzheimer explica hasta el 70 por ciento de los casos de demencia en el mundo y en Chile es la causa de muerte que más aumentó en las últimas décadas. Las estimaciones globales hablan de 35 millones de enfermos. En los próximos 20 años los casos se duplicarán, sin que se haya encontrado todavía una cura. Fruto de cuatro años de entrevistas y documentación, El mal del olvido profundiza en las vivencias de quienes deben acompañar a las personas que padecen este trastorno y, además, recoge la experiencia de pacientes y especialistas dedicados a estudiar la enfermedad en Chile, Estados Unidos y Alemania. Más que datos médicos, este libro entrega historias llenas de coraje y profundamente humanas, cuyos protagonistas están dispuestos a mantener la dignidad frente a un mal que, tarde o temprano, lo borraré todo.
