The Other Man Pashin

Destiny, Chanel, and Tesa were three completely different women with two things in common- Laz and they are all married. Laz Moore, successful, educated, handsome and was quite happy with being one of Miami's most eligible bachelors. When it came to ladies, he preferred married women only. He offered his women comfort when their men weren't providing, someone to count on if they needed to talk, a brotha who was sensitive to the needs their husbands neglected, and someone to lay it down in the bedroom until they were completely satisfied! Laz was content with his complex lifestyle and even more content with the waves of success that he was riding at the moment. When it seemed things couldn't get any better for Laz, he learns his best friend and frat brother, Brandan, is not only moving back to Miami, but he's also getting married! Laz wants nothing less than happiness for Brandan, but knows of his old player-listic ways, and wonders if Brandan is truly ready to settle down. Before long, Laz thinks he has finally found the woman of his dreams, but drama quickly surrounds the love he believes he has discovered when the other man faces the wrath of karma...Will things work in his favor? Or will he fall victim to the life that he created for himself?...
