What's Going On Here?

So You Want to Know, Eh?

Everybody does. Knowledge is power. But information is not knowledge, not before we put our brains to work on it first. Common sense is what we call it when it is used by the man in the street. More learned people can use scientific ways to test information. Common sense requires people to ask questions.

We have just undergone an Information Explosion. Our Age now is known as the Information Age. So now especially we need to be very careful. Our establishment news media are being used widely for propaganda purposes, to promote immoral, anti-social conduct unfit for animals, much less for human beings. Besides, there is promoted in our society, even in our government, behavior that is unfit for our country, unconstitutional, pro-Marxist, profascist, dictatorial with legislators failing to do their duty while judges are making the laws. Education and communications industries have been developed to meet the demand for information, but even they are controlled and tainted with serious error.

Actually, what people seek are looking for is truth.

This what the human mind was created for.

Overwhelmed by clever propaganda disguised as information or news, it's harder and harder for people to arrive at the truth in any area.

Truth is a Right and a Privilege

You have a right to Truth because your Creator gave you a mind that seeks the truth. In this book What's Going On Here? you have the great privilege of getting a full and truthful answer to your question. You can be assured of that because I have asked the right questions and have the training to do so scientifically, questions such as:

Is the person giving you the information in a position to know? What are his sources? Have they been checked? Has the information been tested? Is the person smart enough not to be deceived? Would your source of information have a motive for deceiving others? Are the statements that are being made logical? Do they follow from the the premises upon which they are based?

As the author of this book, I have done all that, having prepared for basic and documented research by formal studies. I am now 92 years of age, have spent 70 years of life serving the material and spiritual needs of people, local and universal as far as able. I have done it for the love of God and of my brothers and sisters in the human family. At this age I am not far from the moment when I will be called to give an account of my stewardship. I am not about to lead anybody astray. If I can bring a little more Truth and Joy into the world that will be my joy.

Mysteries Without End

The present book What's Going On Here? answers the immediate inquiry. Then it opens up minds to a new world of Mysteries and Miracles. The central Truth it explains in simple language is the Mystery of the Catholic Mass. The Catholic Church itself is a mystery. How this institution could survive and maintain its identity through almost 2000 years of history in spite of periodic scandals and storms is certainly a mystery. There is no other institution in the world that has done so. Nor is there is any other institution in the world whose Founder died such a shameful death on a cross and rose from the death with a glorified body. We can begin to understand this mystery if we remember the words of her Founder "And know that I am with you always, even to the end of the world"

The Catholic Church is not perfect and never will be this side of eternity. Jesus came to welcome and save sinners. The Church is here to do the same. Much of our culture and media promote and revel in moral slime. The purpose of this book is to raise peoples' minds to the sublime.

So Take Note of William Shakespeare's words in his play, Julius Caesar:

"There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at its flood leads to fortune Omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries."

This book could be your tide.
