Praise for Catherine Alliott

"Possibly my favorite writer."-Marian Keyes

"Compulsively readable and highly entertaining."-Times

"A joy...you're in for a treat."-Daily Express

"Hilarious and full of surprises."-Daily Telegraph

"Til death do us part jut might cause you to wring someone's neck..."

Imogen Cameron can't quite figure out how she and her husband, Alex, have plummeted from living in their beloved London townhouse to scraping by in his exgirlfriend's guest cottage. But although the scenic pastures might inspire her flagging artistic career, and getting out of the city might do their son good, Imogen wonders if all the country air in the world could calm the crowds that are invading her marriage.

There's a gaggle of psychotic chickens, an infuriatingly bossy vet, that oh-so-sweet ex-girlfriend-and the feeling that her husband is preoccupied with more than just his job. International bestselling author Catherine Alliott delivers an "intelligent, acutely drawn picture of a difficult marriage" (Daily Telegraph), crafting a witty, sophisticated, and poignant exploration of relationships and family.

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Crowded Marriage can make you truly feel more interested to read.
